2011 Republican Lawyer of the Year Award

The Board of Governors of the Republican National Lawyers Association announced today that J. Randolph “Randy” Evans is the 2011 Republican Lawyer of the Year. The Republican Lawyer of the Year award recognizes lawyers for outstanding professional accomplishments and years of dedicated service to the Republican Party and its ideals.

Randy Evans served as the outside counsel to the Speakers of the 104th-109th Congresses of the United States, Newt Gingrich and Dennis Hastert. He currently serves as a partner and Chair of the Financial Institutions group at McKenna, Long & Aldridge LLP, a 400+ international law firm.

Randy Evans is the current Co-Chair of the Georgia Judicial Nominating Commission. In 2011, he became the longest serving Member of the Georgia State Board of Elections. He served as General Counsel of the Georgia Republican Party from 2001 to 2009. He was a Presidential Elector in 2008. He currently serves as a member of the RNLA Board of Governors and Vice President for Election Education.

Randy Evans has been recognized in various publications as one of the “Best Lawyers In America” and one of Georgia’s “most influential people” and as a “Superlawyer.” Evans has authored three books and writes a weekly newspaper column that appears in newspapers around Georgia. He is a frequent lecturer and speaker throughout the United States. He has appeared in and litigated lawsuits around the world.

In addition to Speakers Gingrich and Hastert, Randy Evans represents current and former Senators (including Senator Zell Miller), governors (including Georgia governors Sonny Perdue and Nathan Deal), Members of Congress, and other state and local public officials. He chairs the J. C. Watts Companies. Until Speaker Gingrich’s Presidential campaign, Randy Evans served as Chair of the various Newt Gingrich companies.
